

Contents

PART ONE

The Principles of Book Shopping

- 1 About the Author:
An Introductory Memoir 3
BOOKMARK Early Influences 10
- 2 How I Became a Reader 13
BOOKMARK Heroes in Blue and Gray 18
- 3 A Reviewer's Lament 21
BOOKMARK Gray and Bell 26
- 4 Book Lovers Are Not Necessarily
People Lovers 31
BOOKMARK Bookselling Crime 36
- 5 Amazon Uncovered 39
BOOKMARK Damn Yankee Reviewers 50
- 6 Master Control: The Influences of a
Book Shopper Friend 53
BOOKMARK The Philip Roth Book Shopper 60

PART TWO

Acquisitions

- 7 Prerequisites: What Every Good Bookstore
Should Have 65
BOOKMARK World's End 76
BOOKMARK Other García Márquez Bargains 84
BOOKMARK More Proulx 106

The Book Shopper

- 8 Growing Old with the New Journalists 109
BOOKMARK Tom Wolfe as the Man in Full 122
- 9 Big Social Book Shopping Novels 125
BOOKMARK Touring Franzen 130
BOOKMARK Other Ford Works 134
BOOKMARK Jonathan Lethem: New and Used 136
- 10 Humorists: Being Funny Can Be
Such a Chore 139
BOOKMARK A Few Favorite Yuks 144
- 11 Larry McMurtry: Patron Saint of Book Shoppers 149
BOOKMARK Used Book Butchery 156

PART THREE

What Next? Read, Store, or Sell?

- 12 Books as Gifts 161
BOOKMARK Gifts Unaccepted 168
- 13 The Classic Book Group 171
BOOKMARK Searching for Thomas Pynchon 180
- 14 Managing the Personal Library 185
BOOKMARK Fahrenheit 451 191
BOOKMARK Book Neighbor 197
- 15 Parting Words 201
- Acknowledgments for Troublemakers 207
Index of Authors and Titles 210